History of MED Kashmir

The Department of M&S (Mechanical & Stores) was initially created as a wing of R&B Department, J&K Government, basically as a Service Department for:

Procurement of engineering as well as non-engineering goods required for an overall development of the State of Jammu & Kashmir in the post-independence scenario.

Bringing in the latest technology available in respect of construction of roads, buildings, bridges and other infrastructure, and spread awareness about the same in public sector as well as private sector.

Website Of Prosecution Department

Scope:

To create official website of Prosecution Department ,J&K. The website will provide a platform for the public to access information and resources related to the department's operations and functions.

The main objective of Prosecution Department website is to provide information to the public about the role and responsibilities of the Prosecution Department, as well as the services they offer. This include information about the department's mission, legal authority, and it also provides information on how to contact the department, and recent updates about new guidelines and circulars.

By developing a website, the Prosecution Department can enhance accountability, communication, and accessibility, which could ultimately result in increased public involvement and more effective service delivery.

Status Of Project:

Status update: Profile, Mission, Organisation Structure, Contact Us pages and images have been completed in the frontend

The 'Profile' page includes brief history of department and overview of the working of the department . The 'Contact Us' page includes contact information for the organization, including a phone number, email address, and physical address. In addition, the organization chart image has been added to the website, providing a clear visual representation of the structure and hierarchy within the organization. A 'Mission' page explains the "what," "who," and "why" of the prosecution department with absolute clarity.
